WHAT COMES NEXT?

THIS IS YOUR FAMILY TRADITION, ONE THAT WILL FOREVER BE REMEMBERED AS A LEGACY OF YOUR LOVE & A CELEBRATION OF YOUR FAMILY AS YOU GROW

After your wonderful memory making experience at your photoshoot, receiving your heart warming photographs in the post and enjoying spending further quality time - slowing down during the silly season to create your lifetime of memories within your Time Capsule

Its time to pop it away - let the magic begin.

I have set a reminder to pop you through an email next year,
i'll prompt you to get it out,
BUT DON'T PEEK!

Pop it under the tree, wrapped as a gift and open it together on Christmas morning, a moment to be present amongst the presents, a time to reflect and smile until your cheeks hurt and look back at all that has changed.

A group of people, including a young boy, are sitting on the floor. The boy is leaning over a small, light-colored box and looking at a card inside. The card has the words "Wishing for you" written on it. Other people are sitting around him, some looking at the box. The scene is dimly lit, with a warm, sepia tone. The text is overlaid on the image in a white, serif font.

I cannot wait to create a memory making experience
with you,
wrapped in your families
most treasured moments.
